

Fédération Spéléologique de l'Union Européenne

INTERNAL REGULATIONS

1st modification on the 28 October 1995 (Enniskillen, IRL)

Section 1 : The members

§ 1. Every country must appoint the Federation or the representative national association.

§ 2. If there are multiple propositions for a single country the General Assembly, advised by the committee, decides to accept or not the candidacy of one Federation rather than another.

§ 3. The member position is obtained as soon as the General Assembly agree..

§ 4. Every member must act with the Federation's spirit (FSCE).

§ 5. The bureau can suspend until the decision of the General Assembly the members who would make themselves guilty of grave offence of the Statutes, of the Internal regulations or of moral rules of Speleology.

Section 2 : The contributions

§ 6. Every member's contribution is compulsory and must be paid every year

§ 7. General Assembly can decide that the contribution is reduced in justified cases.

§ 8. The General Assembly decides the amount of contributions.

Sections 3 : The delegates

§ 9. It is advised for every country to appoint its delegate for a four year time.

Section 4 : The Committee

§ 10. In order to permit the continuity of the works, the Committee. is., replaced by half every two years. For the first bureau after the first modification of the 28 oct. 95, all the members will have a two years term. At the end of this first term two members who will extend their term of two year will be drawn lots.

§ 11. The General-Secretary coordinates correspondences and keeps up to date Files of communication, minutes, accounts of meetings, aso..., except for the Files of which the Treasurer. is in. charge. Any accounts must be approved by the General Assembly

§ 12. Any expenditure must received the chairman's approval and must be justified before the General Assembly.

§ 13. The accounts of meetings are put down in writing in a register and kept by the General-Secretary.

§ 14. The Committee decides during the session the date of its next meeting.

Section 5 : General Assembly

§ 15. The General Assembly is the sovereign power of the Speleological Federation of the European Community.

§ 16. The Committee can co-opt colleagues, elected by the General Assembly.

Section 6 : Modification of I.R.

§ 17. The General Assembly can modify this Internal Regulations as far as needed, with a majority vote of the electors who are present are represented.

June 1991 and 28 October 1995